Focused Decision-Making

Career Focusing<sup>TM</sup> Finding work that fits and planning how to get there

Career Focusing<sup>TM</sup> is a process that enables you to manage your career with confidence by teaching you how to make informed, intentional and personally satisfying decisions about your work and learning.

Career Focusing<sup>TM</sup> will teach you how to:

- decide what types of work would truly suit you
- identify learning options that address your needs
- build a satisfying personal development plan
- adjust your plan as new opportunities emerge
